

The Nickel Mine Conservation Area Affords a pleasant $\frac{1}{2}$ mile walk through open woods on 27 acres to two historic foundations adjacent a sand and gravel operations and adjacent to the brook of the same name. There once was a Nickle Mine nearby and you may also spot some old picnic fire places. Access is from Varnum Ave in Kenwood with roadside parking.